

BERLIN TO BROADWAY

WITH KURT WEILL: A MUSICAL VOYAGE

Experience Opera Columbus' Berlin to Broadway with members of the CYP Club and Outlook Columbus at the Lincoln Theatre in the revitalized King-Lincoln District! Featuring the hit song, "Mack the Knife," Berlin to Broadway will lead you through composer Kurt Weill's life—from Nazi Germany through his rise in America on the Broadway stage—using five singing actors and the composer's own music, all accompanied by a six-piece jazz ensemble.

Before the show, from 6pm - 7:30pm, meet at the Lincoln Theatre and enjoy a private, pre-show reception featuring tasty treats to delight your palate, raffle prizes, cash bar, and live jazz, co-sponsored by CYP Club and Outlook Columbus. Admission includes one complimentary drink ticket.

This event is limited to the first 75 attendees both nights, so make your reservation now by calling the CAPA Box Office and requesting the reception ticket for Berlin to Broadway!
