

2014-2015 Season

operacolumbus.org

La voix humaine

Opera lives here

 Opera Columbus' renaissance continues with a spectacular season of all-local productions, which will include a groundbreaking new collaboration, breathtaking performances, and some of the greatest music ever composed. Nothing moves like opera, and we invite you to let yourself be seduced by this magnificent artform in 2014–2015!

The season will open in September with Twisted, a world-premiere collaboration with BalletMet Columbus and the Columbus Symphony, performed in the Ohio Theatre. We will return to the Southern Theatre in March for Mozart's masterpiece, The Marriage of Figaro, which will charm audiences with its glorious music and satirical wit, performed in English. In June, we will close the season with a double bill that combines the Columbus premiere of Poulenc's intimate and moving "telephonic opera," La voix humaine, with Leoncavallo's harrowing verismo tragedy, Pagliacci. Internationally-renowned soprano Elizabeth Futral will star in both works, making her role debut in La voix humaine.

Opera on the Edge, our innovative performance/audience engagement "cabaret" series, returns for its third season with an abridged, English-language adaptation of Pagliacci, produced in collaboration with Shadowbox Live and performed at Shadowbox's Backstage Bistro and The Refectory. As a special add-on for subscribers, Opera Columbus will collaborate with CATCO for their February–March production of Terence McNally's Master Class, which portrays Maria Callas giving a master class at Juilliard near the end of her career.

The 32nd annual Cooper-Bing International Vocal Competition will showcase some of the finest young singers in the world onstage at the Southern Theatre on April 26. It's your chance to see the next generation of opera stars at the start of their careers, and to cast a vote for your favorite!

2014–2015 will truly be a landmark season for Opera Columbus. The productions will be local, the music and performances will be unforgettable, and it will all be amazing. We invite you to subscribe today, to ensure the best seats at a discounted price. Please complete and return the order form on the inside back cover, or call the CAPA Ticket Center at (614) 469-0939.

Thank you for your continued support. We look forward to seeing you at the opera this season!

Sincerely,

Peggy Kriha Dye

La voix humaine and Pagliacci with soprano Elizabeth Futral

conductor—Steven White
Columbus Symphony Orchestra

In Poulenc's La voix humaine, a desperate woman is shunned by her lover over the phone and stumbles through a minefield of emotions towards an uncertain fate. This captivating, 40-minute monodrama is performed in French with English surtitles.

In the powerful and gut-wrenching Pagliacci, Canio and Nedda are members of a traveling troupe of players and also husband and wife, but Nedda yearns to escape with her secret lover. In the end, Canio creates his own tragic ending. Sung in Italian with English surtitles, this production is a collaboration with The Ohio State University and performed with the Columbus Symphony.

Elizabeth Futral has established herself as one of the major coloratura sopranos in the world today with her stunning vocalism and vast dramatic range. She will make her role debut of Elle in La voix humaine and will also perform the role of Nedda in Pagliacci.
