"Forget everything you think you know about opera."

Our upcoming 2019-2020 season includes engaging performances and events that promise to inspire conversation and ignite emotions.

No rules, no judgment – opera is for everyone. Bring a friend, grab a cocktail, and experience opera like you never have before.

Make it yours.

As @ne

A compelling and thought-provoking story about a transgender woman named Hannah, as she endeavors to resolve the discord between herself and the outside world.

Barber of Seville

The Barber of Seville contains some of the most recognizable opera moments ever (Figaro! Figaro!). In our modern twist, see it set in 1990s Seville, Florida, complete with prefab houses, neon colors, boybands and teenage dreams.
